Face2Face with Babies & Animals. 35 mins. mins. (J). Age: 1m-23m. MRA. G. Video Released Oct. 2003. Directed by Angela Russ. "FACE2FACE with babies and animals" is a unique video that has been proven to capture the attention of infants as young as 2 weeks old. Babies are fascinated with the faces of other babies, a concept that has been featured on major television shows. Babies are not only mesmerized by their own reflection in a mirror, they also react attentively to dogs, bunnies, cats, and other animals. This video is full expressive babies and a variety of adorable household pets that will attract and hold an infant's or toddler's attention. It's good clean fun, with soothing, calming music in the background. Seniors have discovered that these are not the grandchildren they want to send home. Babies are as therapeutic as puppies & kittens. There is a child and an animal in here who will capture someone's heart and never let go. Russ Invision (ABridge Club). VHS. Fanny Crosby Story. Color. 46 mins. mins. Video Released Aug. 2003. This is the amazing biography of the blind hymn writer, Fanny Crosby. As the writer of more than 10,000 hymns, all penned after the age of 40, she is credited with authoring more verse than any human in history.The tragic mistreatment by a charlatan masquerading as a doctor blinded Fanny shortly after birth. Nevertheless, she learned to function as a sighted child except for her inability to read. She was an extraordinary child filled with joy and mischief! At her grandmother?s knee, she began to demonstrate an exceptional memory, and memorized several complete books of the Bible, including Ruth and Proverbs.She left home at age 15 to begin her formal education. One of the most notable pupils of the New York Institute for Special Education, Fanny was also the first woman to address the US Congress. Fulfilling the roles of wife, mother, friend, teacher, nurse to the sick during the cholera epidemic, humanitarian to the poor and disenfranchised, and friend of presidents ? Fanny Crosby was an exceptional woman by any standard. And her legacy lives on through the thousands of hymns that are still sung today. Vision Video. VHS. Fashioning Women in Law. Color. 30 minutes mins. NR. Video Released Oct. 2003. Executive Producer Cheryl B. Preston. In this new video, "Fashioning Women in Law", Professor Cheryl B. PReston highlights the inconsistency between the representations of women in advertising with where we think the women's liberation movement has taken us. See how women are commonly portrayed, and noting the general lack of objection to these portrayals, raises fundamental questions about the extent to which women are taken as serious, powerful professionals. These images suggest a number of ways women in our culture are urged to adopt the indicia of the childishness and incompetence. The video provides a solemn warning about the risks inherent in conduct consistent with these portrayals. Brigham Young Univ. (Brigham Young Univ., J. Reuben Clark Law Schl.). VHS. Fast Women - the Ladies of Auto Racing. Color. 60 mins. mins. Age: 10-UP. Public performance, Home. NR. Video Released May 2004. Directed by Laurie AGARD. Produced by Rachel BELOFSKY. This thrilling, award-winning one-hour documentary, directed by Laurie Agard and produced by Rachel Belofsky of Candy Heart Productions, explores the history and many achievements of women in motorsports - the fight for recognition in a male-dominated field, the safety risks, the enthusiastic fans, family support and encouragement, the marketing and sponsorship challenges, and the pressures of being a role model. Until 1971, women were not allowed in the garage area, pits, or press boxes during motorsport events. She could own her own racecar, but certainly could not drive it competitively. FAST WOMEN: The Ladies of Auto Racing, is a celebration of female achievement in the face of adversity with a resounding message to hold on to your dreams. Exhilirating footage from both historic and current races, and interviews with racinga??s most prominent women and men reveal just how far women have come since the days of the ladies-only a??Powder Puff Derbiesa?? in the 1950s. From the first female Indy 500 driver to the first female NASCAR driver, you will meet Janet Guthrie, Lyn St. James, Tammy Jo Kirk, Patty Moise, Shawna Robinson, Hila Sweet and other pioneers of womena??s racing. Women from all walks of life share their racing experiences. Witness some of these womena??s horrific crashes and learn what lures them back into the cockpit. Discover how a very shy and timid woman expertly handles a monster machine zooming at 220 mph across a salt bed. Experience the touching tale of Kimberly Myers, a woman who races against her own clock and Cystic Fibrosis. This multi-award-winner is as entertaining, educational, bittersweet, and inspiring as the determined women whoa??s struggles and triumphs it reveals. The enhanced DVD includes such bonus features as Driver Biographies and Profiles, an illuminating Directora??s Commentary, Production Notes and Credits, and much more! Fields of Armor Vol. 1: Desert Attack. (1993). Military History. Color. 90 mins. Made-for-TV. El Alamein & the Sinai. The decisive battle of North Africa in World War II & the surprise attack in the October 1973 war. Two of history's fiercest tank battles are separated by a mere 30 years & 400 miles - yet connected historically to 3,000 years of fighting over vital Middle Eastern routes. Relive these brutal engagements through footage, interviews & archival materials. Discovery Education. VHS. (ISBN: 978-1-56331-143-7(7), Order #: 23690, UPC: 7-43252-36903-6) $14.95.

Fields of Armor Vol. 2: Birth of Blitzkreig. (1993). Military History. World War, 1939-1945. Color. 90 mins. Made-for-TV. 1916-1942. The first tanks were mobilized in WWI - & ended forever the bloody era of trench warfare. It was Hitler's Panzers that demonstrated their ferocious potential when France & Poland were overpowered in a matter of weeks. Two years later, the Allies demonstrated they'd learned their lessons in the battle of Kursk - history's largest tank battle - as 1,000 Soviet tanks crushed the German Army, leaving one million men dead. Film Noir: The Dark Side of Hollywood, 5 DVDs. B&W. Video Released Sep. 2006. The five films brought together in Kino's new specially priced box set are noir at its most exemplary. Though boasting stars like Joan Crawford and Henry Fonda and helmed by renowned directors, these five films are B movies in the best sense of the term: tight, raw and cannily devoid of gloss. Masters of the genre such as Budd Boetticher, Anthony Mann and the expatriated Fritz Lang are captured here in fine form, as are some of the greatest directors of black and white photography in the business (John Alton, RAILROADED; James Wong Howe, HANGMEN ALSO DIE). Throw in quintessential hardboiled character actors like Jack Palance (the cold-metal villain of SUDDEN FEAR) and Brian Donlevy, tough as nails floozies like Gloria Grahame (SUDDEN FEAR), and the inimitable lug Tor Johnson (BEHIND LOCKED DOORS). Kino on Video. DVD. (UPC: 7 3832905082 5) $49.95.

Final Offer. (1985). History-General. Color. 78 mins. Age: 14-UP. (gr. 9 up). Directed by Sturla Gunnarsson. "Final Offer" is the most comprehensive & candid look at collective bargaining on film. It takes viewers on an eye-opening journey behind the closed doors & into the smoke-filled rooms where labor & management negotiate. The filmmakers follow Bob White, president of the Canadian UAW, through the landmark auto strike at General Motors. We look on as White strategizes with his advisors, fields the angry demands of his members, & makes offers, threats & counter-offers during marathon bargaining sessions. The filmmakers also gained unrestricted access to GM's plants. They vividly capture the daily shopfloor skirmishes & tensions which dominate the subtext of labor negotiations. Remarkably, the filmmakers are even present when White & the other GM negotiator strike a deal while riding the elevator. California Newsreel. VHS. ((ISBN: 978*--67254-064-5()). 3/4" U-Matic.

Final Offer. 1985. Law International Relations. Color. 78 mins. MIRA. Directed by Sturla Gunnarsson. Robert Collison. Featuring Bob White. The Finger Food Cafe Show: A Christmas Gift. 1 cass. Color. 60 mins. CC. Broadcast. Home. Non-Profit. G. Video Released Jan. 2004. Produced by Joel Burkum. "A Christmastime at the Finger Food Cafe." Carla, Mark, Pops and the whole gang are busy decorating the cafe and rehearsing for the upcoming Christmas program. One of the deaf girls at the rehearsal, 11-year-old Meghan, is upset. She confides to her friends that she is frustrated with her hearing father (Jim), whom she feels is inconsiderate of her needs. And what's worse is that he doesn't know sign language. Jim begins to understand his daughter's frustrations when he speaks with Mark and sees Carlo and the kids signing with each other. A few weeks later, during a performance of the Christmas program, Jim gives his daughter a present she'll treasure forever. This outstanding program features several excellent songs that are based on ASL lyrics. The story of the birth of Jesus is also portrayed in a unique shadow drama. This video is presented in sign language, voice and some open English captions. It is also closed captioned in English and Spanish. Deaf Missions. VHS. (ISBN: 978-1-59799-001-1(9)) $15.00. DVD. First Christmas. Color. 23 mins. mins. Video Released Jun. 2004. Includes English and Spanish language tracks.Winner of Andrew Carnegie Medal for Excellence in Children?s Video and the Crown Award for Best Children?s Video.A magnificent production that offers a fresh, new way to recapture the meaning and mystery of the Christmas story. This colorful, clay-animated program of "The First Christmas" is narrated by Christopher Plummer and will delight adults and children alike.It tells the traditional story of the birth of Jesus, beginning with Mary and Joseph's trip from Nazareth to Bethlehem. We witness their encounter with the innkeeper who "has no room for them," but provides shelter in a stable where Mary gives birth. We see the announcement to the shepherds and follow the Magi who trek across the desert guided by the mysterious star. Rebecca, the innkeeper's daughter, and Daniel, the shepherd boy, provide a strong supporting cast. And finally, the mood is enhanced by colloquial dialogue and familiar music in the background. You'll recognize traditional carols such as "Silent Night," "We Three Kings," "Joy to the World," "O Come All Ye Faithful,"and "O Little Town of Bethlehem."Incluye ingles y espa?ol.Ganador de la medalla Andrew Carnegie para Excelencia en Videos para Ni?os y el premio de Crown para el mejor video para ni?os.Una produccion magnifica que ofrece una manera fresca y nueva de volver a capturar el significado y el misterio de la historia de la Navidad. Este programa animado de "La Primera Navidad" es narrado por Christopher Plummer y encantara a los adultos y a los ni?os igualmente.Cuenta la historia tradicional del nacimiento de Jesus, comenzando con el viaje de Maria y Jose de Nazaret a Belen. Vemos su encuentro con el mesonero que "no tiene ningun sitio para ellos," pero proporciona un establo donde Maria da a luz. Vemos el aviso a los pastores y seguimos a unos de los reyes magos que emigra a traves el desierto dirigido por la estrella misteriosa. Rebecca, la hija del mesonero, y Daniel, el pastorcito, proporcionan apariencias fuertes. Y finalmente, el humor es aumentado por musica familiar en el fondo. Usted reconocera canciones tradicionales tales como "Noche de paz," "Los tres reyes," "!Regocijad! Jesus nacio," "Venid, adoremos," y "Oh pueblecito de Belen.". Vision Video. DVD. First Fruits. Christianity. Rejoice over the first fruits of early missions to the West Indies & that ministry's impact on Christian history. Gospel Communications International. VHS. $19.95.

First Fruits. Color. 70 mins. mins. Video Released Jun. 2004. In 1732, two young Moravians left their comfortable community of Hernhut, Germany, convinced that they were called of God to bring the Gospel to the slaves in the West Indies. They went, willing to become slaves if necessary, to minister to these oppressed people. The Moravians pioneered a mission movement characterized by extraordinary commitment. Under the dynamic leadership of Count Nikolaus von Zinzendorf, the Moravians sent out more missionaries in 20 years than all the other Protestant groups had in 200 years. They were driven by two strong convictions: world evangelization is a prime obligation of the church, and every member of the Christian community has this responsibility. First Fruitsi unfolds the suffering which these young men endured for their missionary zeal and the agony of their community in deciding to send them forth at a time when missions to the heathen masses were unthinkable among Protestants. You will especially marvel over the ?first fruits? of their ministry and the impact of their vision on the course of Christian history.Special Features-English, Spanish, German and Portuguese language tracks-Optional English subtitles-Chapter titles provided for easy scene accessWinner of ?Best Film of the Year? Award from Christian Film Distribution Association. Vision Video. DVD. (ISBN: 978-1-56364-821-2(0)) $19.99.

The First IEP: Parent Perspectives, 1 DVD. CC Video Released Sep. 2006. Author Annie Cox, Deborah Chen. An ideal first step in the Individualized Education Program (IEP) process, this DVD facilitates collaboration between professionals and parents as they help young children make the critical transition from early intervention to preschool. Perfect for guiding parents and training new and future practitioners, this encouraging, unintimidating resource answers common questions and concerns about IEPs, gives viewers an accurate picture of the process, and promotes dialogue between families and professionals. Viewers will learn from mothers who've been there as they discuss their child's special needs, their IEP preparation, and how they got the results they wanted; watch parent/professional collaboration at work as a mother meets with an early interventionist to talk about what to expect and how to prepare; and see a successful IEP in action with a simulation of an IEP meeting for a boy with multiple disabilities and illustrative followup clips of the child in his new preschool. A must for early childhood programs and for practitioners in training, this engaging and informative DVD helps parents and new professionals come together to ensure the best possible transitions for young children. Fixed Income. Color. 60 mins. mins. Video Released Nov. 2005. Instructed by Rob Kepler. From the MTA Education Seminar 2005 - Advanced CMT TopicsPolish your CMT exam skills by hearing from the experts in the toughest exam areasOur Advanced CMT Topics track is designed for candidates in the CMT Program and recent graduates. This track covers seven topics with which candidates tend to have the most difficulty, particularly on the CMT Level 3 essay exam. The presentations cover three of the most complex topics:Japanese candle charting, point & figure charting and Elliott Wave Principle, all taught by practitioners. These areas seem to give candidates the most difficulty on the exams, so an hour with the experts should prove to be a valuable education. The presentations on equities, foreign exchange, commodities and currencies are taught by individuals whose careers are dedicated to analyzing these markets. Many CMT candidates only focus on one of these markets; these sessions are designed to get candidates up to speed on analyzing markets with which they may not be familiar.Altogether, these seven sessions are designed to give attendees insights into how technical analysis is applied in the real world. As well, these sessions are designed to be the perfect preparation for the essay questions on the CMT Level 3 exam which covers each of these areas. The insights of the practicing technicians who lead these sessions are representative of those insights required to pass the exams. These sessions were designed with CMT candidate feedback in mind. Often, candidates who spend their work day analyzing one market or primarily utilizing one technique, have a difficult time shifting gears to address all of the markets and techniques covered by the CMT Program. Marketplace Bks., Inc. DVD. (ISBN: 978-1-59280-216-6(8)) $79.95.

Foreign Exchange. Color. 60 mins. mins. Video Released Nov. 2005. Instructed by William Dale. From the MTA Education Seminar 2005 - Advanced CMT TopicsPolish your CMT exam skills by hearing from the experts in the toughest exam areasOur Advanced CMT Topics track is designed for candidates in the CMT Program and recent graduates. This track covers seven topics with which candidates tend to have the most difficulty, particularly on the CMT Level 3 essay exam. The presentations cover three of the most complex topics:Japanese candle charting point & figure charting and Elliott Wave Principle, all taught by practitioners. These areas seem to give candidates the most difficulty on the exams, so an hour with the experts should prove to be a valuable education. The presentabons on equities, foreign exchange, commodities and currencies are taught by individuals whose careers are dedicated to analyzing these markets. Many CMT candidates only focus on one of these markets. these sessions are designed to get candidates up to speed on analyzing markets with which they may not be familiar.Altogether these seven sessions are designed to give attendees insights into how technical analysis Is applied in the real world. As well, these sessions are designed to be the perfect preparation for the essay questions on the CMT Level 3 exam which covers each of these areas. The insights of the practicing technicians who lead these sessions are representative of those insights required to pass the exams. These sessions were designed with CMT candidate feedback in mind. Often, candidates who spend their work day analyzing one market or primarily utilizing one technique, have a difficult time shifting gears to address all of the markets and techniques covered by the CMT Program. Foundational Analysis: Selecting Winning Stocks. Color. 81 mins. mins. Video Released Mar. 2005. Instructed by David Nassar. According to legendary educator and best-selling author David S. Nassar, the mantra of trading can be cut down to a simple formula: Filter, filter, filter! To be truly successful as a trader, you must be able to cull the superfluous noise out of the market. In today's media-frenzy world, there is an abundance of "market food" being fed into the market each day - information that is cooked up by analysts and given to the market by brokers. This highly informative presentation teaches you the four critical foundational elements for eliminating the non-nutritional market food from your trading diet. Nassar's expert advice and savvy tips will help you find your rhythm, build up your confidence, and turn you into a trading master par excellence. Anticipate the market, don't just participate!. The Four Acts of Prayer. Color. 132 mins. NR. Video Released May 2005. Featuring Walter Wangerin, Jr. Both new and experienced Christians find praying to be something of a mystery and often wonder about how to pray. The Four Acts of Prayer with Walter Wangerin, Jr. presents a framework for praying that infuses prayer with a rhythm while maintaining its personal nature. Wangerin teaches that prayer is more than communication; it is a conversation between God and each one of us. And because it is a conversation, it is made up of these four acts: we speak, God listens, God speaks, we listen. In the ten lessons of The Four Acts of Prayer Wangerin uses stories to explore these vital elements of the complete circle of praying. He shows us that these four simple acts, practiced and developed with diligence, bring us into a close communion with God that supports us in our daily living. The Four Acts of Prayer is accompanied by a study guide that has scripture references, discussion questions, class activities, and journaling topics. Paraclete Pr., Inc. DVD. Four Chaplains. Color. 54 mins. mins. Video Released Oct. 2004. In 1943, four young Army chaplains joined 900 raw recruits who were headed for battle in Nazi-occupied Europe on the U.S.A.T. Dorchester. During the voyage, a torpedo from a German submarine ripped through the hull of the ship which began to descend rapidly into the freezing waters of the North Atlantic. In the frantic scramble for lifeboats, four chaplains on board?a Catholic priest, a Jewish rabbi, and two Protestant ministers?directed many soldiers to safety. When the life vest supply ran out, they selflessly removed their own and gave them to the soldiers, knowing they could not possibly survive without the flotation devices. They spent their last moments singing hymns and praying, arm-in-arm, as the ship disappeared beneath the waves.This documentary recounts the remarkable story of their faith and courage through dramatic military footage, recreations, and personal interviews with survivors and family members.DVD includes 45-minute broadcast version as well as 54-minute extended version. The Fourteenth Victim: Eliot Ness & the Torso Murders, 1 Videocassette. Color. 58 mins. mins. Age: 14-UP. Broadcast. NR. Video Released Oct. 2002. Editor Mark Wade Stone. Photographer David A. Brodowski. Produced by Mark Wade Stone. Double A is a locally produced documentary about one of northeast Ohio?s true jewels: the Akron Aeros, the 2002 Eastern League Southern Division champs. Akron Aeros fans will get a rare opportunity to catch a day in the life of the players during a typical minor league playoff series in Double A. A story told with no narration, Double A is an hour-long snapshot that presents an unwavering view of how a city back on the rise has reinvented what used to be: people being people, watching baseball that families can afford, played free of the trappings of the big leagues. On its face, Double A is about baseball, says Mark Stone, producer and editor of the documentary. But it is less that than it is about the people who play, watch and work around minor league baseball. The texture of life remains a rich and enduring one, as thousands of players, fans and workers have yet another encounter with America?s pastime. Storytellers Media Group, LTD. VHS. Francis Bacon. Art-Appreciation And Criticism. Art-Biography. Color. 28 mins. Age: 17-UP. (gr. 12 up). Francis Bacon's work is not easy to categorize. If he cannot quite be called an Expressionist proper, it is because even when he allows his paint to appear loose & spontaneous, there remains a sense of strict control, even precision. His intense background colors also seem to have been applied with pristine detachment, & his writhing figures seem frozen in time. His use of photographs & medical illustrations give a further quasi-documentary atmosphere that is not typically Expressionist. Nevertheless, Bacon is in accord with Expressionism in his painful abrasions & distortions of faces & flesh, evoking an agonized picture of the world in which individuals are isolated & vulnerable. Roland Collection. VHS. (Order #: 599) $99.00; 3/4" U-Matic. $346.50.

Francis Bacon & the Brutality of Fact. Art-Biography. Color. 58 mins. Directed by Michael Blackwood. Featuring Francis Bacon, David Sylvester. Produced by Michael Blackwood. Freedom to Marry, Color, 57 mins. NR. (Narrated: English). Video Released Jun. 2004. Directed by Carmen Goodyear, Laurie York. A gay marriage documentary from award-winning directors, Laurie York and Carmen Goodyear "Quietly earth-shattering" - 2004 Southwest Lesbian and Gay Film Festival This uplifting and poignant documentary, being shown in film festivals around the world and used as an educational tool, highlights a momentous, historical milestone when San Francisco Mayor Gavin Newsom engaged in ground-breaking civil disobedience as he allowed same-sex couples to marry at San Francisco City Hall. "With rousing speeches from beloved comic Margaret Cho, Assemblymember Mark Leno, Marriage Equality leaders Molly McKay and Dr. Davina Kotulski, and interviews with seven long-term, recently married couples, FREEDOM TO MARRY brings a joyful, personal face to same-sex marriage at the height of this burgeoning civil rights movement." - LOS ANGELES OUTFEST 2004 FREEDOM TO MARRY documents the stunning celebration which began on February 12th, 2004 in the city of San Francisco when newly-elected, straight, married Mayor Gavin Newsom felt compelled to recognize the rights of same-sex couples to be treated equally. Included in the film are passionate comments by comedian Margaret Cho. This courageous act of compassion has caused an explosion of emotion on both sides and if you were not fortunate enough to be in San Francisco for this, don't miss this chance to experience one of the most important events in the historic fight for civil rights for gays and lesbians everywhere! -Mo Ratel, Director 2004 AUSTIN GAY &

LESBIAN INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL "I never ever expected to be so deeply affected. I sat there in tears for most of the film. It was amazing and soul-opening. Galloping Through the Gospels. Color. 31 mins mins. Video Released Nov. 2002. A fast-moving and scintillating exploration of all the major sites featured in the Gospels. Starting with the Annunciation, David Nunn follows through the gospel drama chronologically, providing fascinating and illuminating insights into the life of Jesus. From Bethlehem David takes us to Nazareth and its surrounding terrain, which witnessed so much of the Old Testament history of Israel. Then it is on to the wilderness- where John called people to repent-then to the Jordan River. In the lush beauty of Galilee, we visit many of the sites most associated with Jesus: the Mount of Beatitudes, Tabgha, Capernaum, the lakeside and more. We discover why Jesus chose Caesarea Philippi to elicit Peter?s momentous profession. We explore the headwaters of the Jordan around Dan before following the path of Jesus south to Jerusalem, passing through Jericho.In the Holy City we trace the passion of Jesus from betrayal, trial and crucifixion to the resurrection and ascension.This program is far more than a travelogue. The visits to the Gospel sites illuminate the meaning of the world-changing events that took place at these locations. Vision Video. VHS. (ISBN 978-1-56364-643-0(9)) $19.99.
